"Fly-In" Breakfast Well Attended

Getting away from it all meant getting above it all for a happy band of fliers here Sunday.

The result was a hearty outdoors breakfast had by all in ideal weather — and served by members of the Oak Hills Flying Club.

The big breakfast "fly-in" drew private pilots from across Southern Ontario — and a couple from Quebec.

In all, 45 amateur airmen flew their private planes here in response to the wide-open invitation.

Farthest points were Petrolia and Montreal.

Local visitors helped swell the crowd and club members' wives served 150 breakfasts of bacon, eggs and toast — washed down with the traditional air-hostess' offering of coffee, tea or milk.

Inter-Faith Church Service For Stirling Held Sunday, June 4th

Senior Citizens' Club

Over forty Senior Citizens met last Thursday. Mr. Wm. Dettlor was introduced.

President George led us in song and Nora tickled the ivories. To fill a little time, the President asked Bob Patterson to tell the "kids" a bedtime story. The audience weren't exactly kids, and the bedtime story wasn't exactly a bedtime story.

Jean Potter, in honour of her mother's birth date, treated us all to permanent waves (of sandwiches and cookies). Mame was really surprised when a birthday cake about 2 feet square was presented to her. Anne and Kathy Morton, her two granddaughters, assisted Jean in serving. A few of Mame's neighbours were present for the occasion, as well as her two sisters, Edna Sharpe and Mabel Armstrong.

President George thanked Jean for inviting us to share in this celebration.

George also shot his usual load of bull before we were dismissed.

Lord knows what's coming up next Thursday, but it will be good. Come and bring a friend and be sure to keep June 27th open. B-see-u on Thursday.

Held At the Henry Street Park — Belleville Salvation Army Band Present

In hot, sunny weather, a large number of citizens from Stirling and district turned out for the Inter-Faith Centennial Church Service held at the Henry St. Ball Park on Sunday afternoon. This event was arranged by the clergy, representing all the churches in the Village.

Salvation Army Band Present

The Salvation Army Band, Belleville, provided music for the service and accompanied the hymns.

During the hour of worship, a massed choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Morrow, sang an anthem, "The Centennial Hymn", by Kenneth A. Moyer. Jack Bush sang a Centennial Hymn, composed by his mother, Mrs. Roy Bush.

Those taking part in this very impressive service were: Rev. J. Bruce Small, Rev. Father J. F. McGarvey, Rev. D. MacPherson, Pastor Bill Kenna, Mr. Ernest Belch and Mr. Graham Mouck.

The Canadian Council of Churches service of worship for Canada's Centennial of Confederation was used.

This was a service giving thanks to God for the riches of His providence, both in days gone by and in our own day.

Mr. Bruce Glendinning was in charge of the public address system.

This will be the only service held as a joint community service for Centennial Year in the Village.

The general opinion of those in attendance was that this type of service should be developed into an annual event.

Proceeds of the offering will go to the Stirling Centennial Committee.

Buys Cottage

Rudy Klompfner, of town, has purchased the cottage of Dr. R. B. Murray, at Oak Lake. The real estate deal was completed by Floyd Bartlett, local representative of Frank E. Barry Real Estate, Trenton.

Laurel Rebekah Lodge Sponsors Successful Centennial Coffee Party

(By Sis. Florence M. MacMullen)

On Wednesday evening, May 31st, Laurel Rebekah Lodge, No. 211, Stirling, sponsored a very successful Coffee Party in the I.O.O.F. Hall. There was a large attendance from the Stirling area and Lodge members in the District.

The convenor, Sis. Isobel Good, with Sis. Joyce Richardson as co-convenor and their assistants arranged a very colourful tea and several Centennial costumes added interest.

The guests were welcomed at the door by N.G. Sis. Ilene Dafee and V.G. Sis. Verna Woodbeck. The Treasurers were Sisters Gladys Sine and Mary Hulin.

The tea room was arranged as an old-fashioned flower garden. A long, white picket fence was bordered with a large array of old-fashioned blooms with variegated hollyhocks as the central theme. An archway of evergreens dotted with artificial flowers made a picturesque gateway. Inside the tea room were containers of wee evergreen trees and two lilac trees in bloom.

The tea table was covered with a white linen cloth, yellow candles in cut glass candelabra, a low bowl of spring flowers and the silver services. Each quartet table was centred with an old-fashioned boudoir lamp used at the turn of the century.

Sis. Nellie McIntosh provided organ music during the two hours and her repertoire included a large variety of older songs.

Sunday School Service of Worship Held at Wellman's

The annual Sunday School Service of Worship was held at Wellman's United Church on Sunday, May 28th, at 8 o'clock. Many people from the surrounding districts joined with Wellman's for this occasion.

Mr. Craig Watson, Superintendent of the Sunday School, took charge of the service. Miss Nancy Tompkins, Sunday School pianist, was accompanist for the hymn singing.

Mr. John Williamson, of Trenton, guest soloist, rendered two favourite numbers, "Bless This House" and "The Lord's Prayer", with Mrs. Craig Watson as accompanist.

Mr. Glen Watson, of Bancroft, who is an Inspector of Public Schools gave the address of the evening. He chose for his topic, "Christ or Crisis". Mr. Watson emphasized the importance of the manner in which each individual chooses to live his life, hoping that everyone would see in this day of crises just how important it is to be a direct follower of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Wilbert Cox, minister of the Church, gave the Benediction.

Following the service, everyone enjoyed a period of hymn singing while the ladies were preparing a delicious lunch, which was served later.

Mrs. Rex Rollins, Federated Board Representative ratified the District

Directors as follows: Chatterton, Mrs. Emory De Mille; Unondale, Mrs. Frank Phillips; Stirling, Mrs. Morley Ayrhart; Bay of Quinte, Mrs. Lloyd Bewley; Wallbridge, Mrs. Don Shorey; Pine Grove, Mrs. Farley Lindenfield; Sidney South, Mrs. Ken Bush; River Valley, Mrs. Roy Tucker.

The reports of the Standing Committee showed the variety of work carried out by the branches. Community singing was led by Mrs. Percy Sutherland with Mrs. Donald Joss at the piano.

Mrs. Rex Rollins congratulated the convenors and members for 100 per cent reporting. She also brought the report of the Spring Board meeting.

There are 1,363 W.I. Branches, 13 Jr. W.I. Branches, 32,121 Senior members, 273 Jr. members, with 2,423 life members. She said for a Centennial project, Mrs. Small, Prov. Pres., suggested that the Branches try to increase their membership.

"Safety in the Kitchen" will be the safety project under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. Bradnock, Auburn, Ont.

The Federated W.I.'s of Canada National Convention is to be held at the University of Guelph, June 12th to 16th, 1967. The theme of the Convention will be "Opportunities - Responsibilities, From Sea to Sea." Madame Aroti Dutt, A.C.W.W. President will be the guest speaker on the opening day.

Mrs. Alva Meyers reported on our adopted children. These are underprivileged children who are sponsored by the Institutes through the Canadian Save the Children Fund.

Leadership training schools and short courses were reported on, as follows: Block printing, Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson; Choosing and Using Fabrics, Mrs. Cecil Jeffrey and Institute Procedure, Mrs. Wilmet Shortt.

Luncheon was served by the members of Sidney South W.I. Mrs. Allan McDonnell brought greetings from the Farm Safety Council. Pictures were taken to be used in the District Tweedsmuir History Book. Several ladies were attired in Centennial dresses, bonnets and shawls which added much to the occasion.

The afternoon session was opened with assembly singing. The roll call of the Branches was most interesting and appropriate as each told of a Historical Landmark in their community. Bay of Quinte told the history of Harder's School. This report was prepared by Mrs. Nelda Holland and given by Audrey Bewley. Mrs. Floyd MacInnes, of Chatterton, gave the history of the Sidney Baptist Church and a Century Farm owned by Mr. Harry Faulkner. Oak Lake was the historical landmark chosen by Mrs. Harold Dettler for Pine Grove Institute and Mrs. Jack Bush, for River Valley, chose the Trent River. She told many interesting stories of the early days when the Indians travelled this waterway. The old Flour Mill of Stirling was reported on by Mrs. Clifford Clancy. Mrs. Harry Bloeker, Unondale, chose Brookdale School and Mrs. Allen Spencer, Old Wallbridge Post Office. Mrs. Roy Nobes, Sidney South, told the history of the Nobes' home. In this home, the first Council meetings were held and also the first Institute of this District was organized.

Miss Mary Oliver, Home Economist, gave a full report of the girl's work.

A very impressive Memorial Service was conducted by Mrs. Roy Tucker.

Mrs. Frank Phillips had charge of the Pennies for Friendship ceremony. A total of $90.43 was received.

Mrs. M. Pardy brought greetings from the department. She chose as her topic, "Thinking About the Future". The first Institute was organized on February 19th, 1897. This year we celebrated our 70th anniversary, but she said the Institute that thinks it can put its feet up and rest will not last long. It is thrilling to think that from that first meeting, we have now grown to F.W.I.O., F.W.I.C. and also a part of A.C.W.W. Some of the objectives of the early Women's Institutes were, and still are, Better Home Making, Developing Leadership and Healthier Living.

A delightful Centennial Fashion Parade was arranged by Mrs. Jack Sargent. Those taking part were from the Hastings Historical Society.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Area Public Relations Officer, brought greetings and gave a short report. She stated that a voluntary collection of $26.00 for Pennies for Friendship had been given at last year's Area Convention and arrangements were being made for a collection at the Convention this year.

Mrs. Roy Bush, District Tweedsmuir Curator gave the highlights of the years work.

Mrs. Morley Ayrhart brought in the report of the nominating committee and Mrs. Edison Sine extended an invitation for Unondale to be hosts of 1968 District Annual. Mrs. Everett Phillips thanked all who had helped in any way to make this a very successful convention.

Allan Wells Graduates From Management Course

Allan Wells, of Wells Ford Sales Ltd., Stirling, Ont., has been graduated from a dealership management course conducted at the Detroit Ford Marketing Institute at the Fair Lane Conference Center of the University of Michigan in Dearborn.

Douglas B. Andrew, institute director, said the five-day course is designed to help dealers develop plans for continuing improvement of dealership operations in the growing automotive market. The course covers modern methods of staffing and organization, personnel development, merchandising facility modernization and advertising and sales promotion.

The course is one of a number which Ford Motor Company offers Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers. They emphasize after-purchase service and better customer relations and are developed from methods used successfully by dealerships throughout the country.

Other Ford Marketing Institutes are located in New York, Chicago, Dallas, San Francisco and Atlanta. Since the first was opened in 1959, more than 100,000 persons have attended.

Don Williams Gives Talk On Quin-Mo-Lac Camp — District President Present

The monthly meeting of St. Paul's AOTS Men's Club was held Wednesday night of last week.

The meal (Kentucky Fried Chicken) was provided by the losing team in an attendance competition over the year, along with the trimmings of ice cream and strawberries and proves the ability of Captain Harry Waite and his helpers.

Elwood Bateman, President, welcomed the visitors, including those who maybe part of the new congregation this year.

Don Williams was in charge of the programme and his theme was Camp Quin-Mo-Lac. Highlights were the organization of the camp, programs and interesting experiences in his fifteen years as an officer and director of the camp.

President reviewed some of the past year's work of the Club and mentioned the projects, pointing out the two kinds the men were a part of:

First — Fund raising projects: Rummage and Auction Sale; Christmas nut selling.

Second — Service Projects: Carol singing at Christmas to shut-in men (13 calls); Sponsoring 2 Hi-C delegates to Toc-Alpha at Niagara Falls; Sponsoring a new AOTS Club at Caniffon; Bus trip to Toronto to Fred Victor Mission for worship service (36 men); Landscaping the Church property, a Centennial project (26 shrubs); Visit to Hastings Manor for sing-song and worship service; Sponsoring two boys to Camp Quin-Mo-Lac; $100.00 donation to Queen's Theological Ext. fund; Paying for half the cost of the U.C. Observer to be sent to every family; Assisting with the registration fee for 18 Sunday School teachers to go to Five Oaks for teacher training.

Although fund raising is important he pointed out that without the service projects we're not doing our duty as one who serves.

Wendell Camm conducted the devotional. District President Ross Adams, Consecration, conducted the installation of officers, as follows:

Honorary President — Rev. J. B. Small

Past President — Elwood Bateman

President — J. L. Good

Vice-President — Art Loucks

"Us Kids"

While the attendance of Senior Citizens was down a little, due to a wet day, the odour of "the skunk" was up a little. (For details, see Fred Heasman or Gertrude Belshaw). Sorry, George and Jessie — Never mind, your day is coming.

Several cards were on display from "The Bells", who are abroad on their second honeymoon. Mrs. Harrington, who is also on holiday, keeps us informed by cards of her whereabouts. The treats of the day were the kindness of Clifford Cain. "Thanks, Cliff".

Be sure to attend on Thursday. You can help make the programme by recalling some humorous incident of your school days.

Stirling W.I.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Geo. Mamby, Mrs. Morley Ayrhart offered her home for the June meeting of the Stirling Women's Institute.

The President, Mrs. Clifford Clancy was in the chair. Roll call was answered by each member naming "a cause of water pollution."

A quilt top was donated by Mrs. Harry Jones. Some discussion was held re the Quinte Belles Chorus coming to Stirling. It was decided to leave the matter till later in the year. A motion was made to send for more Centennial spoons.

The delegate, Mrs. Arnold Wannamaker gave an interesting report of the District Annual Convention held at Centenary United Church of May 9th.

Mrs. Frank Smith gave a lengthy report of her trip to the Officer's Convention held at the College May 2nd to 4th. She showed several pictures, a programme and menu, to help make it more interesting. A report will be given later on the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead.

Mrs. E. Foster read a clipping 25 year old "Albert College Alumni hears splendid address on Canada, by a then new Canadian." This was very interesting.

Mrs. B. Reid gave a comic reading entitled, "The Waller." We all know people like this who are always moaning over something.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. The hostess and Miss Williams served a dainty lunch.

The President thanked Mrs. Ayrhart for the use of her home and extended a cordial invitation for the visitors to come again.

In Memoriam

DUNKLEY — In loving memory of my dear husband, Earl Dunkley, who passed away one year ago, on June 9th, 1966.

Two tired eyes are sleeping,
Two willing hands are still.
For one who suffered far too much is resting in God's will.
I like to think when life is done,
Wherever Heaven may be,
He will be standing at the door
Up there to welcome me.

— Sadly missed, but always remembered by wife, Flossie.

GRAVER — In loving memory of a dear Husband, Father and Grandfather, Wilfred O. Graver, who passed away June 18th, 1965.

He walks with us down quiet paths
And speaks in wind and rain,
For the magic power of memory
Gives him back to us again.

No distance can divide
For today in Memories Garden
We still walk side by side.

Each dawning day a thought of him,
At eventide a prayer,
And in the hearts that loved him,
He always will be there.

— Ever loved and sadly missed by

Centennial Night At Mt. Pleasant

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

Saturday evening, June 3rd, was a gala night at Mount Pleasant Church Hall when the pupils of the two schools, with their teachers, presented their Centennial programme to a capacity audience of over 250 people. The residents from the two schools, sections and guests from Brockville, Lansdowne, Burnbrae, Spring Brook, Frankford, Carmel, Hoad's, Bethel, Wellman's, Stirling, Toronto, Peterborough, Oshawa, and other points were in attendance.

The Hall was decorated with Centennial symbols, flags and lights, while special serviettes were used for the refreshments.

Large posters, prepared by the children, were placed along both walls and depicted the history of one hundred years, the various industries of Canada; also Canada in 1867, 1887, 1967 and Expo; the history of the Allan Public School and the Williams Public School, with a list of teachers; the story of churches in the area; Aeradio Station; mining; farming; police protection; prevention of fires; air travel; hydro, sheep farming; trains; Golden Centennaires; Elaine Footwear; garbage disposal; apple farming; our government; the telephone; printing plant; transportation; Rawdon fire protection; dairy cattle and crop rotation; sugar making; cheese factories; chicken farming; Stirling Public Library. Our community trip as a Centennial project to learn about our own community activities and many others was very informative.

Antique Displays

A long table at the front of the Hall and other displays of antiques on the stage, depicted the days of yore. There were pictures of people and school children, wedding gifts, china, Bibles and books of various descriptions, a crocheted bedspread, christening gown, baby clothes, a wedding outfit 102 years old, all sorts of equipment used at the house and barn, iron kettles, stone jars, butter makers, cradle, a spittoon, gold watch, lace boots for women and men's old-fashioned rubber boots.

The articles included a brass kettle of 1812 and a 1966 plaque. Some of the articles were 155 years of age and some were loaned by folks outside of the community. A display of fashions, by way of pictures and magazine clippings, gave a glimpse of various styles of clothing throughout the years.

The teachers and pupils wore special costumes for the occasion and several of the United Church Women who catered wore gowns of 1867 vintage.

Two of the oldest men, Mr. Ross Hoard and Mr. Frank Bailey, were treasurers.

O.P.P. Bob Burton was in charge of the parking.

The music supervisor, Miss Grace Pitman, Stirling, gave the piano accompaniment for the choruses and songs. Robert Merrick was in charge of the curtain.

The programme opened with "O Canada" and the 45 children of the two schools sang "Centennial Song".

Eight Juniors from the Williams' School, dressed as Indians, gave a number and ten Seniors depicted a "Virginia Reel". Seventeen girls of both schools, with their various pots and pans, sang "In Grandma's Day". The two schools, in massed formation, rendered "The Flag" and "Our Canada". Fourteen pupils from the Allan School contributed a flag exercise and polka. The Williams' School rendered "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree". Both schools sang "When You and I Were Young, Maggie", "When You Wore a Tulip" and "Bicycle Built for Two". Seven girls of the Williams' School sang "Alice Blue Gown". Both schools sang "United Nations" and "Peace" and displayed a large U.N. flag. The twelve Seniors of the Allan School gave a special exercise and drill, entitled "Canada East and West".

Mrs. Muriel Hoover, teacher of the Williams' Public School, spoke briefly and introduced the girls who provided prelude piano selections. They were Lorraine Jeffs, Bonnie Williams, Janet Spencer and Jeannette Hoard, of the Allan School, and Doreen Visser, Jill McAdam, Kathy Sharpe and Debbie David, of the Williams' School.

A former pastor, Rev. W. G. Fletcher, of Lansdowne, Ontario, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. John R. Matheson, of Brockville, M.P. for Leeds County and Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister. Mr. Matheson was given a standing ovation. He spoke of the beautiful scenery in this part of Ontario, as he had accompanied Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Fletcher and Janet by car from Belleville that evening. In his message, he congratulated the pupils and teachers for their very splendid Centennial arrangement and particularly mentioned their United Nations.

Mr. Matheson spent a month in Europe in 1966 and this year he was in Asia for a month and he reminded the young people in the audience of the vast opportunities that are available to them in Canada. He also paid tribute to the heritage they had received through The United Empire Loyalists, who first settled the wilderness in Rawdon Township.

He donated Centennial pins to the children and gave a glimpse of a larger vision when some of them will no doubt serve in remote corners of the world when they are adults.

Mrs. Grace L. Morton, teacher of the Allan School, expressed gracious thanks for his informative message and his generosity in attending this function, as he has a very busy schedule. She then introduced the following, who brought greetings:

Mr. L. E. MacCrimmon, Tweed, Public School Inspector and he read the last verse of a poem composed by one of the pupils, stating that they had learned a lot as they enjoyed their bus trip. He also read a letter of greetings from M.P.P. Elmer Sandercock, Belleville, who was unable to be in attendance; Warden William Shannon, Marmora, and Reeve Fred Beckett, of Rawdon Township.

At the close, the schools sang "We Love Our Canada" and "Centennial Hymn".

Kenneth Couch and his father, Harvey Couch, provided accordion and harmonica music. Gordon Morton and his teacher, Mr. John DeVries, of Stirling, gave accordion duets. Donald Campbell and Randle Scott contributed banjo and harmonica music.

Refreshments were served by the U.C.W. and a social half hour was enjoyed.

The teachers and pupils have received many complimentary remarks on their Centennial project, which was an outstanding success.

Rawdon AOTS Men's Club

On Thursday evening, June 1st, Rawdon AOTS Men's Club held their Family Night in Bethel Church Hall with forty-five in attendance.

President Jim Pollock was in the chair and Ross Hoard presented his report. Will Heath conducted the Devotional. A vocal solo was rendered by Lynn Joslin and a duet by Valerie and Janice Clancy.

Craig Watson introduced the guest speaker, Grant Hagerman, who gave a travelogue with slides, depicting his Winter in Belgium, Holland and France with the hockey team. He said the hospitality was wonderful and he felt that it had been a great experience to have such an opportunity to be in Europe.

Fred Beckett, voiced appreciation and presented Grant with a gift.

Refreshments were served, after which the group enjoyed a few games of crokinole. The Club is planning a picnic in July.

Hastings County Riders

The idea for the Hastings County Riders was thought of last year by Glenn Floud, but at that time not enough people were interested to form a Club. This year a few horsemen got together with Glenn to organize a Club for those who enjoy going on trail rides and not so much competition.

The officers are: President, Ted Cairns; Vice-President, Glenn Floud, both of Stirling; and Mrs. Nancy Allin, Sec-Treasurer, of Corbyville.

The Club has a membership of fifteen, mostly married couples.

The Club held its first show at Stirling on the 22nd of May and it was a success in every way. In view of this, the Hastings County Riders are holding an overnight trail ride on the first of July, open to all interested parties. For further information, contact Ted Cairns, Glenn Floud or Mrs. Allin.

Belleville Council Approves the Amalgamation of School Areas

Amalgamation of the Stirling-Rawdon High School District and the Centre Hastings High School District with the Bay of Quinte High School area is a step closer as the result of a complete reversal of thinking by Belleville city council.

Monday last in a 9-2 vote, council members reversed their action of two weeks ago and approved the amalgamation of the two Hastings boards with the Bay of Quinte High School District.

The amalgamation of the school districts now has to be approved by Prince Edward county council before it can become effective. This approval must come before June 30 for the amalgamation to become effective in January.

Hastings county has already approved of the merger.

At the same time council voted to recommend to the enlarged school board that school trustees be elected to the board instead of being named by appointment and also that there be more equal representation on the basis of population.

Alderman J. R. Scott said there would be new legislation covering the election of school trustees. "Under the legislation election of trustees would be allowable, but not compulsory," he said.

Aldermen Thomas Carruthers and Kenneth Solden, who at the last council meeting moved for the matter to be laid on the table to allow councillors the opportunity of obtaining more information on the merger, brought in the recommendation for reconsideration. Two weeks ago they had opposed the high schools merger.

Aldermen Jack Allin and Donald Joss were the only two councillors who still held out against the amalgamation.

C. McLeod, district high schools inspector with the department of education at Kingston, outlined the system of grants which would apply following amalgamation.

He said that as a result of the special grants no municipality involved in the merger should suffer financially because of the merger. Special grants would be paid for three years to make up any difference.

"No municipality will lose money because of the amalgamation," he said.

But Alderman Dr. J. R. Scott wanted to know what would happen after the term for the special grants ran out.

Mr. McLeod said the minister of education favoured larger school area and felt this would afford plenty of protection against financial loss by the municipalities.

To a question from Alderman Jack Allin, Mr. McLeod went on to explain the foundation grants which helped to even out costs in municipalities where there was an assessment differential.

Alderman Donald Joss wondered why the townships of Sidney, Thurlow, Tyendinaga and the village of Frankford were so strongly opposed to the merger, and asked if all aspects of the proposed merger had been explained to these municipalities.

Mr. McLeod assured the matter had been fully explained to the dissenting municipalities. He didn't know the reason for the continued opposition.

Mr. McLeod went on to list the educational advantages which would accrue as a result of the merger.

These included master teachers, psychological service, separate vocational schools, an audio-visual resources centre, and educational TV. Mr. McLeod said the Quinte area might not save any money through the merger but it would get a whole lot for the money it spent.

The Stirling-Rawdon and Centre Hastings areas would gain more educational advantages than would the Quinte area but would not gain financially because they would be helping to assume debts in the Quinte area.

Mayor J. R. Ellis apologized to city council for his failure to fully explain the proposed amalgamation to council two weeks ago.

He urged approval of the by-law. He said the amalgamation was a good financial bargain for the city of Belleville, while students in the entire area would benefit through better education facilities.

Rylstone

Mrs. Ellis Jones

(Held Over)

Several ladies from Rylstone UCV and the Gospel Chapel attended the Centennial "Come and Go Tea" at Spring Brook United Church on Thursday. Many of the ladies were dressed in Centennial style. There was also a beautiful display of dolls and an antique show.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickey Gray and baby, of Campbellford, were guests of his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Gray, recently.

Sidney Township Centennial Hall, Municipal Offices Officially Opened

Event Held On Saturday Afternoon and Evening — Very Largely Attended

Rain held off just long enough Saturday afternoon to allow Sidney municipal officials and ratepayers to conduct the official opening program of the township Centennial Hall and Municipal Offices, at Wallbridge.

Skies were threatening and the odd drop of rain was falling as the crowd gathered around a platform on the paved lot in front of the new building.

The Quinte Highland Pipe Band from Trenton entertained in advance of the opening remarks by Reeve Ernest J. Kells. Mr. Donald E. Hodgins pronounced the prayer of dedication.

Wieger de Jong, contractor, Stirling, presented the keys to William A. Watson, Watson and Wiegand, architects, who in turn presented them to deputy-reeve Jack M. Bush, building chairman.

Mr. Bush introduced the guest speaker, W. H. Palmer, deputy-minister of the Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs.

Mr. Palmer noted that he brought congratulations to Sidney township on behalf of his minister, J. W. Spooner.

He made note of the township's long history, having once been called Eighth Town and settled by United Empire Loyalists.

In 1943, he recollected, the old hall had burned, after which the council rented quarters in the Orange Hall in Wallbridge.

The cornerstone for the new building was laid last October, he said. He complimented the township on its excellent financial situation, including the costs of the hall.

"I wish all municipalities were in as fine shape," he commented.

He reminded the crowd that Centennial grants, both provincial and federal would be made.

He said the new hall would serve as an excellent meeting place. "It is a splendid reminder of Canada's 100th birthday," he said.

The township, he said, was laid out in 1787.

It is one of the most populous and wealthy townships in Hastings County," Mr. Palmer said. "You are obviously very conscious of your township's history."

Inside, some of that history was on display in the form of old school registers, minute books, texts, and other memorabilia.

After his address, Mr. Palmer, using a pair of golden scissors, and assisted by Reeve Kells, cut the broad red ribbon stretched across the front doors, to officially open the premises.

Saturday evening, a programme and dance was enjoyed by a large turn-out.

Pony Express Riders Passed Through Stirling Yesterday

One of Canada's most ingenious Centennial projects — a pony express system across the nation — passed through Stirling Tuesday, June 20th.

The pony express, composed of more than 3,000 riders from Vancouver to Montreal, made use of local horsemen and women to carry greetings to Queen Elizabeth II when she visits Expo in early July.

Horsemen in the Quinte area were enlisted to carry the scroll through Campbellford, Stirling, Frankford, Trenton, Belleville and Napanee.

The project was organized by Al Legate. He carries greetings from the Mexican Charros horsemen of Mexicali, Mexico.

The message is written in old Spanish script on a rawhide scroll. It is carried in an aluminum cylinder capped with leather on the ends.

At the four corners in Stirling early Tuesday morning Reeve D. W. Rodgers and Art Loucks, President of Rotary Club, presented greetings to rider John McDonald, Foxboro, and Police Chief Chas. Hicks presented the scroll, which was carried on to Frankford. This will eventually be presented to the Queen.

Riders taking part in the ride through Stirling included: Ted Cairns, Glen Flood, Dennis Asseltine, Casey Utibeyse, John McDonald, Darcy Lawson, Doug, McDonald and two daughters, Al Legate and Susan Rose.

Bill Parm and Bill Lawson, Belleville, were in charge of the event for this area.

Oddfellow and Rebekah Lodges Dedicate Memorial At Cemetery

Annual Memorial Service Held — Max Singer, Past Grand Master, Speaker

Members of Stirling Lodge No. 239, I.O.O.F., Stirling Encampment No. 80, and Laurel Rebekah Lodge, No. 211, held the annual Memorial Service in honour of their departed members on Sunday afternoon. The Oddfellows assembled at the Lodge Hall and, led by Bro. Blake Faulkner, paraded to the cemetery. Bros. Mac Sharp and Lindsay Tanner were flag bearers. A halt was called at the Cenotaph where a wreath was placed in honour of those who lost their lives in the Great Wars by Bro. Guy Bradshaw. A minute's silence was observed and the Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bro. Bert Jones. Cde. Chas. Barnard lowered and raised the flag.

The Havelock Kiltie Band, under the direction of Elvin Carr, provided martial music for the occasion.

On arrival at the cemetery, the Oddfellows were joined by the Rebekahs, who held their ceremony first.

Junior Past Noble Grand Lillian Johnson, Noble Grand Ilene Dafeo, Vice Grand Verna Woodbeck, and Past District Deputy President Neva Vandervoort took part. A wreath was deposited by Sis. Grace Vandervoort, in memory of those departed.

For Stirling Lodge, George Carlisle read the names of the departed members, while Chas. Carter offered the prayers. Wreaths were deposited by Chief Patriarch Clifford Heagle and Noble Grand Don Walker.

Memorial Stone Dedicated

During the ceremony, a memorial stone, suitably engraved with the names of Stirling Oddfellows, Rebekahs and Encampment Lodges and their emblems was unveiled and dedicated in a very impressive ceremony. Past Grand Master Bro. R. E. Fox, was master of ceremonies for the event.

This has been a project of the Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Stirling for several years, as a lasting monument in memory of those of the Order who have passed to the Grand Lodge Above. This will also be marked as their Centennial project.

Rebekah Noble Grand Ilene Dafeo and Don Walker, Noble Grand of the Oddfellows, unveiled the memorial. Sis. Neva Vandervoort, P.D.D.P., read a Scripture reading, P.G.M. Earl Fox dedicated the stone on behalf of Grand Lodge.

Bro. Chas. Anderson, Carrying Place donated the two evergreen shrubs placed on either side of the new memorial stone.

Past Grand Master Guest Speaker

Bro. Max Singer, Immediate Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, was guest speaker for this memorable occasion. He delivered a most appropriate address to an attentive audience.

Bro. Singer challenged the members of the Order to live up to their principles and learn to live and work with one another. He said that the Oddfellows' Lodge was the first fraternal order to confess universal brotherhood. There is much to honour in the past and much more to be done in the future, he stated.

The Past Grand Master noted that Oddfellowship teaches the respect for fellow men and that we should not forget what others in the past have accomplished.

Following the return march to the Hall on Charlotte St., refreshments were served.

Presentation
Bro. R. E. Fox, on behalf of the Stirling Lodges, presented Ken Sine, of Peterborough, a member of Stirling Lodge, and a Past Grand Patriarch of Ontario, with a gift in recognition of his 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Sine, at present, is a patient in a Peterborough Hospital.

Hay Crops For Quality Feeds Forage Day Theme

Close to 800 farmers from the four county Bay of Quinte districts turned out Wednesday at the Martindale Farms, south of Tweed, to see how hay was made themodern way.

The occasion was the annual Forage Day, sponsored by the Quinte Soil and Crop Improvement Association. The day's theme was "Soil the Provider".

The day's program included tours of a series of hay demonstration plots where the value of fertilizers and types of hay mixtures were pointed out by soils and crops specialists from the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Other topics discussed during the morning included weed control, field enlargement, drainage, capital grants, farm planning and production costs and the handling and storage of forage crops.

Close to 500 farmers enjoyed the noon luncheon catered to by the Crescent Lodge at Thomasburg.

Association president Grant Hayck and hosts Albert and Donald Martin welcomed the visitors, following which Dr. W. S. Young, crop science department, OAC, Guelph, gave a talk on "Hay Crops for Quality Feeds".

Farm machinery dealers from throughout the Quinte area were on hand with the latest in forage harvesting machinery.

The dealers were allowed a five-minute talk on the merits of their harvesting equipment and then staged demonstrations to make quick work of cutting a field of hay on the Martin farm.

The Martins (father and son) owners of 450 acres, three miles South of Tweed, term themselves "average" farmers for the area.

But they have been quick to adopt the latest in farm operating techniques.

Following a fire in 1960, the Martins were among the first in the county to construct a modern type barn and milking parlor and more recently have built a new forage silo. The farm dairy herd, including young stock, number 109 animals.

Currently they are thinking in terms of a fence removal program to enlarge fields for more efficient operation of mechanized equipment.

Rylstone

(Mrs. Ellis Jones)

The weather was ideal for the "Country Fair" at the opening of the Barnum Memorial Park on Saturday. Though the sun was hot for those who had work to do, the day was a decided success. Most of the Rylstone community and surrounding communities were in attendance. A complete account of the day will appear later.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Spencer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Percy Munby, of Spring Brook, on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. James Linn, at Huntsville recently.

Mr. Harold Forde, of Waldeck, Sask., called on friends here on Friday.

All the youth groups from the three churches, Stanwood, Rylstone and Spring Brook — C.G.I.T., Messengers, Explorers and Tyros — took part in the evening service at Spring Brook United Church, on Sunday.

Mrs. Chester Meiklejohn has returned home from Campbellford Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Sweet and Joyce, of Dunnville, spent the week end with his father, Harry Sweet, and attended the opening of the Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spencer and family were Sunday guests of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lounsbury and Vicki in Peterborough.

Congratulations to Lenora Stapley and Tom Thomson, who were promoted to the next form without trying exams. George Reid only needed one exam.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reid, Spring Brook, visited her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morton, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jones called on his mother and sister, Mrs. G. W. Jones and Mrs. Thelma Tulloch, in Stirling, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Petherick and Mrs. Minnie Morton spent Sunday in Oshawa, with Mr. and Mrs. Wally Jackson and family.

Mrs. Wm. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gray attended a silver wedding celebration in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Teding, in Peterborough, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug. Lennie, Wayne and David, of Rexdale, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Spencer and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Finch and Gary and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fiach spent Sunday at Kemptonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dunk spent Saturday and Sunday at Expo. Arlene Dunk was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Shelley at Burnbrae.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Turner, of Toronto, spent Monday evening with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dunk and family.

St. Paul's United Church Women

The June General Meeting of St. Paul's United Church Women was held in the Sunday School rooms and opened with the theme hymn "From all that dwell below the skies" and a prayer led by the President, Mrs. Jack Bush.

A business period followed and a short report from each standing committee was given. Mrs. H. Donnan reported that 414 pounds of used clothing was sent in the bale. Each Unit is asked to prepare at least one number for the Maple Leaf Jamboree which will be held in November.

Mrs. Edwin Warren, Membership Chairman, assisted by Mrs. Allan Wells, presented the President, Mrs. Jack Bush, with a life membership pin. Mrs. Bush, visibly surprised, expressed her appreciation and sincere thanks for the honour bestowed upon her.

The next General Meeting will be held on October 3rd.

The devotional period was given by Unit Two, Mrs. Gerald Bush read the 8th Psalm, followed by the hymn "O Lord of Heaven and Earth and Sea." An article of praise for wondrous beauties of the earth was read by Mrs. Basil St. Pierre. The offering hymn was "All things are thine, no gift have we." A poem, "Nature's Song," was read by Mrs. Bush after which the appropriate hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth" was sung. Mrs. St. Pierre led in a prayer of thankfulness and the devotional closed with the hymn "Lord dismiss us with Thy blessing."

Mrs. Harry Waite gave a synopsis of her trip to Five Oaks with the other Sunday School teachers.

At a general session they were shown a film "Let's Face It" showing where growth within the church begins. The adult study book "Panorama of the Bible" was also reviewed. Mrs. Waite, who is a primary teacher, told how her group was shown how to stimulate and keep the interest of their classes by reading to them, showing pictures, making posters, displaying a wonder tray, illustrating hymns, planting bulbs and keeping up an interesting book centre. Olive D. Sparlig, writer of the "Teacher's Guide" was also in attendance that week-end.

Skits Presented

Mrs. M. Ayhart, Mrs. Ross Bush and Miss L. Williams, members of Unit Four, presented a skit on "Fellowship". Questionnaires on the responsibility of a citizen as parent, a family member, an individual, a community member, a member of the nation and a member of the world community were given out and the members divided into groups of five to discuss and answer them. Setting a good example; showing interest and kindness to all especially to our Canadian who originally came from other lands; being active in Church and community affairs and a concern for injustices, were a few of the answers given.

The meeting closed with the hymn "From Ocean Unto Ocean" and the Mizpah Benediction.

Unit Five served a delicious lunch of fruit loaf and cheese, after which Mrs. A. Wells expressed thanks for all present.

Amalgamated School Area

Prince Edward County Council has joined with the City of Belleville and Hastings County in approving a by-law to amalgamate Stirling-Rawdon High School District and Centre Hastings High School District with the Bay of Quinte High School Area. Arrangements are already underway for setting up the joint administration in January, 1968.

Hastings County Council approved the by-law at its spring session. Belleville City Council gave its approval two weeks ago after originally turning down the move. Ameliasburg township, the only township in Prince Edward to be involved, voted last week to join the Bay of Quinte area. Prince Edward County Council endorsed the move on an unanimous vote.

Bay of Quinte District High School Board secretary, Roy Dulmage, said that the board has already written to the Department of Education asking for guidance in the new amalgamation set-up.

He said it was expected that administration details of the joint board would be completed for Jan. 1, but that the operation of the schools at Stirling, Marmora and Madoc would not be changed until September, 1968.

After January 1, the academic details of the amalgamation would be worked out, including the setting up of bus transportation for those students from Stirling, Marmora or Madoc, who would attend classes in Belleville.

BELL LINES

by R. W. Carleton
your telephone manager

As my old Grandmother used to say many years ago, "Neither braggin' nor blowin' but..." and then continue on to relate some fine piece of news. Well, you may have to put up with a bit of braggin' and blowin' from any telephone people you may know across the country. We're all basking in reflected glory these days following the impact our Telephone Association of Canada Pavilion has had on the crowds visiting Expo 67. Why, even newspaper critics are raving over the results of several years of planning and work by the major telephone companies in Canada who worked as a team on this project. The whirlwind tour of Canada via Walt Disney's Circle Vision 360 degree technique proved the most popular attraction at Expo during its opening weeks. Some 36,000 visitors a day are crowding into the circular theatre in the Telephone Pavilion to view the wonders that are Canada. Canada 67 is leaving Canadians with a deep sense of pride in their country and visitors from other lands with a new respect and awe at the vastness and variety of our land. I hope you will put the Telephone Pavilion high on your list of "must visit" buildings when you are at Expo. It seems to be the popular and "in" thing to do at the greatest World's Fair ever.

Moving, whether it's off to the cottage for the summer months, down the street, across town or to a distant city, presents quite a challenge for most homemakers. Lists of things to be done can help smooth the path, however. Could I ask you to please jot down "telephone" at the top of that important list? And then let us know just as soon as the date and place of your move are set. By letting us know early of your moving plans we can clear up all the "behind the scenes" work and ensure prompt service when you move into your new dwelling. Although it usually takes our installers only a short time to install telephones in your home, much planning and work must be done in our switching units to provide this taken-for-granted service. When you let us know early of your moving plans, we can plan ahead to avoid any delay in serving you.

Seems hard to believe, especially with all the communications of the future on display in the Telephone Pavilion at Expo 67, but just 91 years ago — June 25, 1876 — the first public demonstration of the telephone was held at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia.

Now this old scribe has space to say a few things about man's twilight years. (He'll catch up on you old girls at some future issue). Let's face it, Pa, most of us will be gone ahead of Ma and this will then be a woman's world. Well, I think it always has been for when a man is born, people ask "How's the mother?" Mount Pleasant Rawdon U.C.W.

The June meeting of Mount Pleasant Rawdon United Church Women was held at the Church Hall on Wednesday evening, June 14th, with twenty-four ladies in attendance. Mrs. Burton Sharpe presided and opened the meeting with a hymn, prayer and a welcome to all.

Mrs. Harry McAdam presented her report and also that of the Treasurer.

In the business period it was decided to quilt a Centennial quilt and to provide cookies for a 25th anniversary. Final plans were made for a wedding. The two schools will receive a balance of $40.00 after all expenses were paid at the recent Centennial Night. The U.C.W. donated the food. The group will cater at Hoard's Livestock Sales on July 10th. The ladies are invited to a trousseau tea on Sunday for Miss Norma Hoard and to a Presbyterial Centennial Tea at Holloway St., Belleville, on June 28th.

The corresponding secretary read letters of thanks from Dawn Cox, Grace Morton, Pauline Johnson, also Jeannette Hoard, Kenneth Sharp and Rodney Graff, of the Allen School; Kathy Sharpe, Jill McAdam, Wally Hoard and Peter Cousins, of the Williams School.

Mrs. Mac Sharp was pianist and Mrs. Grant Hubble and Mrs. Tom Cousins conducted the devotional, using the booklet, "God Commands We Pledge Allegiance". Those assisting were Miss Shirley Potts and Miss Annie Holmes.

Mrs. Kenneth Weaver introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. John L. Good. She gave a very interesting message on the theme, "It's Good To Be Alive". Mrs. G. Hubble voiced thanks and made the presentation of a gift.

Mrs. Garth Joalin sang "Today Is Mine". Mrs. Carleton Potts and Mrs. Dave Potts provided the refreshments.

Dr. D. McMullen, 82, Dies In Frankford

The gradual passing of an era in community service was sadly emphasized at Frankford on Sunday with the death of Dr. David McMullen.

Dr. McMullen, who marked his 82nd birthday last March, had practiced medicine for 52 years, most of them spent as physician to the people of Frankford and their neighbours in the surrounding rural area.

He was among the last of a generation of doctors who entered service while modern communications were in their infancy, ready around-the-clock to serve a practice scattered about the countryside.

Available as physicians and personal counsellors, they became known as the "country doctors".

Born in Enniskillen township, near Petrolia, Dr. McMullen graduated from the University of Toronto in 1914 and first practised with International Nickel at Copper Cliff.

He transferred from there to Frankford where he first opened practice 46 years ago. For many years, he served as local coroner and medical officer of health for Sidney township.

He only retired from practice in October, 1966.

His wife, Jean Coral Lennan, died more than 30 years ago, and he is immediately survived by two daughters — Mrs. William (Jean) Rose, of Belleville, and Dr. Monica Murdoch, of Vancouver — and five grandchildren.

Funeral service, under the direction of the Weaver Funeral Home, Trenton, was held today (Wednesday) at Frankford.

Sidney Offices Open For Business

As of Monday morning last, ratepayers of Sidney township can do township business directly at the new Centennial Hall and Municipal Offices on the Wallbridge Road.

Mrs. Nellie M. Savage is the clerk-typist.

Also making their offices in the building are E. Hugh Lyons, the new treasurer and tax collector, and George E. Caves, welfare administrator and plumbing and building inspector. Clerk J. Byron Harder said that the Sidney township telephone number is 962-9597.

Higher Mathematics

"If there were four flies on a table and I killed one, how many would be left?" asked the teacher.
"One", answered the bright little girl. "The dead one."

Barnum Centennial Community Park Opens

The Barnum Centennial Community Park was opened Saturday, June 10th, with a large crowd in attendance. It was estimated that approximately four hundred people attended.

Mrs. Lindsay Anderson, President of Rylstone Women's Institute, welcomed the guests. Mr. VanCamp, Warden of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham, declared the Park open, while Mrs. Sanford G. Melkjohn, first President of Rylstone W.I. at its beginning in 1924, cut the ribbon. Mrs. Ernest Irwin, Chairman of the Park Committee, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the programme.

Distinguished guests were: Russell Rowe, M.P.P., and Mrs. Rowe; Rod Webb, M.P., and Mrs. Webb; Reeve Fred Beckett, of Rawdon Township, and Kenneth Parr, Reeve of Seymour Township; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barnum (Mr. Barnum, now 92, spoke for the Barnum Family, as did Dr. Donald Barnum, of the University of Guelph); Mrs. Fred W. Barnum, first Vice-President of Rylstone W.I. and former mistress of the Barnum homestead, when the park-site was part of the Barnum farm.

Other members of Mrs. Barnum's immediate family present were: Mr. Roy Barnum, druggist, Campbellford; Mrs. (Dr.) Jim Lyons, Belleville; Dr. Don Barnum, Guelph, and Mrs. Albert Case, of Islington, with their families.

Mr. Alfred Barnum gave a brief history of the Barnum family, extending from Sir Walter Barnum, in 1377, and had with him a complete genealogy history. Caleb Barnum was a member of the seventh generation, who purchased the Crown land now known as the Barnum home from the University of Toronto.

Dr. Donald Barnum expressed the deep appreciation of the Barnum family to the Rylstone W.I. and to all who had contributed to make this park a lasting tribute to the Barnum family.

A brief history of Rylstone Women's Institute was given by Mrs. F. M. Rutherford, of Campbellford, the first Secretary-Treasurer of the W.I. Tribute was paid to the late Mrs. Herbert Spencer, at whose home the Institute was organized in 1924. Mrs. Spencer had always been a willing worker for the Institute, but had never accepted an executive office. Mrs. Rex Rollins brought greetings from the Federated Institutes of Ontario. Mrs. Ernest Irwin is the only continuous member of Rylstone W.I. since 1924, and has held several important offices at Provincial level, one of which was Regional Vice-President of the F.W.I. of Ontario.

Many arts and crafts were on display, one of which was the braiding of ree-staw to make straw hats, by Mrs. Thos. Kerr, of Campbellford. Completed hats were on display.

The Campbellford Art Club had a fine selection of oil painting on display.

A large showing of antiques, all the way from oxycopes to fine china, glass, etc., had been collected and shown by Mrs. Ellis Jones. One item was the story of John Bunyan and was 110 years old.

A beautiful Centennial cake, decorated with Centennial roses and emblems, etc., was made and donated by Mrs. Wm. Donaldson, of Peterborough (the former Jean Stewart, of Rylstone). It was on display during the afternoon and over 250 tickets were sold on it. The lucky ticket holder was Mrs. Orrie Barton, of Spring Brook. The holder of the lucky ticket on the Institute quilt was Mrs. Jack Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Seymour West, had a fine private collection of antiques and momentos and a complete cider mill. A two-horse "democrat", owned by the late Mr. Herbert Spencer, was at the park and Mr. Harry Mumby spent the entire afternoon drawing the children with his team of horses and the democrat.

Weaving was shown by Mrs. Harold Naylor, of Marmora, and liquid embroidery, by Mrs. Carl Ray, of Spring Brook. A display of handmade jewellery was exhibited by Mrs. Maurice Brunton, of Petherick's Corners. Homemade quilts, crochet work and embroidery were displayed by Mrs. Alfred Akins.

Mr. Maxwell Anderson, a former Rylstonite, and now living at Minto, a double amputee, had a display of his rugs.

The locals schools had exhibits and articles for sale and Mrs. Clarence Thomson and her C.G.I.T. group showed their projects. A jewellery display of Centennial items were shown by Collin Collins, Campbellford. Greeting cards and stationery were displayed by Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Mrs. Ellis Jones.

W. C. Stapley, of Campbellford, was on hand with two steam engines.

The afternoon netted a financial profit of around two hundred dollars, which will be used to add equipment to the Park, to make it a place of recreation.

Musical numbers were contributed by the Sentinel Lodge Pipe Band, Claire Irwin's Orchestra, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer and the Senior Citizens of Campbellford, who also led in community singing.

Much deserving commendation should go to Rylstone W.I. who have worked for the past two years to clean up and landscape the Park and prepare it for community enjoyment and also to the Barnum family for their contributions, both financial and material, to bring this project to such a successful conclusion.

The theme of the Federated Institutes of Ontario for this, our Centennial Year, is "Make Canada Beautiful" and this small organization, Rylstone W.I., has done its part.

Many of the ladies and some gentlemen, were in Centennial costume and a parade, led by the Sentinel Pipe Band, brought the programme to a close. Many pictures were taken by local and amateur photographers.

Wellman's U.C.W.

The June meeting of Wellman's United Church Women was held at the Church.

The President, Mrs. Fred Beckett, used as her call to worship, the poem "God Is Not Dead", followed by prayer.

Mrs. Burton White took charge of the worship service, opening with a hymn of praise. Mrs. Alfred Akins read the Scripture Lesson.

In her meditation, Mrs. White compared our lives to a garden of roses. Just as a garden needs constant attention to keep free from weeds, so we must strive to uproot bad habits, such as impatience and ill-temper and make our lives rich and blooming. The devotional closed with a hymn and prayer.

The correspondence included a letter of thanks from Mrs. W. Cox for the rose and rose bowl she received while a patient in Belleville Hospital and invitations to attend teas at Carmel, Burnbrae, Rylstone and Holloway Street United Church, Belleville.

Mrs. Ron Hadley reported on the catering at the Sine sale and a committee was appointed to arrange for Hoard's Sale Barn, in July.

The roll call was answered by a Bible verse containing the word "rose" and Master Douglas White gathered the offering.

Readings were given by Mrs. Ron Hadley, "Christ Has No Hands But

Our Hands", and Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins, "Bulbs".

The chapter from the study book, "The Protestants in Lower Canada" had been prepared by Mrs. John Carlisle. Work was carried on among the French Canadians by different denominations especially Anglican, Methodist, Salvation Army, Baptist and Pentecostal.

Among the British settlers and disbanded soldiers, the Methodists gave leadership. With the coming of the Loyalists, the number of English-speaking Protestants increased. Even then, the problem of two cultures was recognized.

Today society is changing but the importance of religious education is felt to resist pressure and keep Canada Christian.

Mrs. Beckett expressed her thanks to all who had taken part in the meeting and closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

The committee served lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Madoc Art Centre's Centennial Project

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cadwell have returned to the Madoc Art Centre after spending the winter in Florida.

In May of this year, Mr. Cadwell was invited to Japan by the Indo-Japanese Friendship Association regarding the erection of a Peace Pagoda at the Centre on Highway 7, as a symbol of Peace and Friendship between the East and the West.

Mr. Cadwell spent three weeks in Japan visiting the peace pagodas there and attending the inauguration ceremonies of new pagodas at Niihau and Kemeru. The latter pagoda was built by the local tourist association as all visitors to Japan are interested in seeing the peace pagodas.

The one at the Centre, the first to be erected in the Western world, will also be a tourist attraction for this area.

On July 2nd at 2 p.m., the site is being formally dedicated. The public is invited to attend the ceremony which is the Centre's Centennial project for this year.

Stirling Branch Canadian Legion Host Zone F-3 Drumhead Service

Officers of the Stirling Legion have formed last Sunday's Drumhead Service a success in every way. Despite threatening skies and cool winds, the special Centennial service at the local Recreation Park drew a good representation of Legion Branches in the area. All told, Legion Branches were in attendance from Deseronto, Belleville, Napanee, Trenton, Tweed, Campbellford, Marmora, Havelock, Concession, Wellington and Stirling.

The parade, under the direction of Zone Sgt.-at-Arms, Earl Murphy, of Deseronto, provided a colourful and musical change on the local streets. Three bands added to the occasion. The Havelock Pipe Band, Trenton Citizens' Band and Belleville Legion Bugle Band highlighted the parade. The colour party was directed by Branch 228 Sgt.-at-Arms, Blake Faulkner.

Under the direction of Zone Commander Earl Brant, the service at the Recreation Park was both brief and to the point. During the service, greetings were extended by Mr. Elwood Wilson, President of Stirling Legion; Stirling Reeve D. W. Rodgers; Mr. Lee Grills, M.P.; Mr. William Shannon, Warden of the County of Hastings.

Rev. J. F. McGarvey, Chaplain of Branch 228, gave the invocation and prayers. Trenton Citizens' Band provided the music for hymns. Special speaker for the occasion was Mr. Don Wilson, 2nd Vice-President of the Ontario Command, Royal Canadian Legion. Mr. Wilson, in his brief address pointed out that the Legion was an important and valuable force in the country and the community. He listed many Legion activities dedicated to the betterment of Canada and Canadian citizens. Despite all of these major objectives and achievements, Mr. Wilson warned the Legion that complacency and neglect within the ranks of veterans were still the major concern of Legion officials. He pointed out that the Drumhead service should also be a memorial service, designed to remind us all of the sacrifices made by so many Canadians.

The speaker was introduced by District Commander Gerry Simpson, of Brighton, while Deputy Zone Commander, Oscar Thurston, of Tweed, expressed the thanks of all Legion members for Mr. Wilson's address.

Following the service, the parade moved off to the Stirling Cenotaph

In Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kirkey were admitted to Kingston General Hospital on Monday.

Mrs. Harry Waite presented Miss Marilyn Conley, a bride-to-be, with a gift from the choir. The address was read by Mrs. Harry Philip.

Mrs. Don Williams voiced appreciation to Rev. Bruce Small for his services as choir leader during the past year and presented him with a small gift from the choir.

Lunch and a social half hour concluded the evening.

where a special memorial wreath was placed. Mr. Charles Barnard, of Stirling, placed the wreath on behalf of the veterans. Mr. Barnard, a Life Member of Branch 228, is a veteran of the Boer War, World War I and World War II. He was supported by two other Life Members of Branch 228, Mr. Clarence Chard and Mr. Arthur Hagerman.

The March Past and Salute were taken by Mr. Don Wilson, Ontario Command 2nd Vice-President. Comrades George Heasman, another Life Member of Stirling Branch, and Russ West, a Past President of the Branch, were in support of the Ontario Vice-President, at the saluting base.

The Legion is most appreciative of all the assistance and support tendered by members of the Branch and community-minded citizens who did much to assure the success of the occasion.

Four District United Churches Now Form One Congregation

Stirling and surrounding area has a brand new United Church organization, made up of Carmel, Eggleton, West Huntingdon and St. Paul's.

This new congregation will now worship in St. Paul's United Church, Stirling.

On Sunday, June 25th, an Amalgamation Service was held at St. Paul's. Rev. Aylmer Smith, of Eggleton, delivered the sermon, based on "How Big Is Your Faith?" He noted that the forming of this new congregation should be regarded as a marriage. The efforts of people who kept the various churches alive had not been lost — but were only now being truly fulfilled.

Rev. Smith said he hoped that everyone would work at making the

Famous Lady Pilot Visits Oak Hills Flying Club

One of the world's early women pilots paid a visit to Stirling's Oak Hills Flying Club Thursday night. Bozena Krajca, a native of Czechoslovakia "borrowed" a Communist plane in 1949 and flew to freedom. She is now living in Sydney, Australia.

She began flying in 1937 and gained international recognition in aerobatics and racing. Her country sent her on tours over Europe and Asia and on numerous occasions she took top place in competition against a field of men. When she was not performing she was flying instructor.

During the war, Miss Krajca was forced to work in a factory making bombs for Germany. She patiently waited for Germany's demise but shortly after the Communist regime took over Czechoslovakia in 1948, she stole one of their planes and escaped.

She gave up performing 13 years ago but is now beginning to fly again. Staying in Batawa with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kreek, she is now flying around the world. She will be attending the 995th Inc. convention in Washington, D.C., a gathering of women pilots of the world. The organization is honouring Amelia Earhart, who was the first president of the organization 30 years ago. From Washington, Miss Krajca will be going to Vienna to meet her sister.

Speaking of her new home and democracy, Miss Krajca unknowingly has pointed out how good we really have it. "I am lucky I am here in a free country and I am grateful and proud to be an Australian citizen, but deep in my heart there is always a strong love for my own country and I know that I will never see her again."

While at the flying field, she was a guest of Don Rodgers, Reeve of Stirling, and Ray Irwin, of Batawa, who took her on flights around the Stirling-Batawa area.

Prior to leaving, a social half hour was held in the club house, where the guest of honour told of many interesting experiences she has had and also of her escape, with her husband, following the Second World War.

Rylstone UCW Holds Successful Centennial Tea

Though threatened with showers earlier in the day, the afternoon was fine and warm for the Centennial Tea at Rylstone United Church on Wednesday, June 14th. Though the flowers were not as plentiful and varied as usual at this time of year, some lovely bouquets flanked the altar and decorated other points in the Church.

Ladies were present from Spring Brook, Wellman's Corners, Hards Station, Zion United Church, Petherick's Corners, St. John's United Church, Campbellford, Stanwood, St. Mark's Anglican Church, Bonarlaw and the Gospel Chapel, Rylstone.

Mrs. Ross Dickie welcomed the guests and conducted a short devotional period. The hymn, "Rise Up O Men of God", was sung and Mrs. Dickie offered "A Prayer for Peace". Scripture selections were read by Mrs. Clarence Thomson. The devotional theme was "The Church, Christians Scattered". Mrs. Wilfred Spencer introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Leith Stetson, of Marmora, who spoke on "Called To Be Servants".

She stressed the following points: "Come — Learn — Go — Tell and Do".

Mrs. Dickie expressed the thanks of all for a very interesting talk and presented her with a small gift. Mrs. Stetson is the Chairman of Leadership Development of Belleville UCW Presbytery.

Mrs. Wm. Barlow, of St. Mark's Church, Bonarlaw, read a poem "60 Years of Farming", which was over 100 years old.

Mrs. Densmore Linn, of Stanwood, sang "The Little Old Church in the Valley", with piano accompaniment by Mrs. C. Thomson. Mrs. Gerald McFaul, of Spring Brook, gave two short readings, "Orphans of the Living" and "Do Something". Mrs. Ellis Jones gave a "History of Rylstone Church" from pioneer days to this Centennial Year. Mrs. Alfred Akins of Wellman's Corners, gave a reading, "This Is Canada". A national hymn "Our Loved Dominion Bless" and a benediction brought this part of the meeting to a close.

The silver sacrament service, donated by the late John Spencer, when the present church was built, was on display in its glassed cabinet. It consists of the server and two goblets and has been replaced in use by the individual glasses for several years.

Sandwiches, old fashioned cake, doughnuts and tea were served and the lovely centennial cake made and decorated by Mrs. Robt. Barnes, of Springbrook, was cut and served. It had been on display before the programme.

Home baking tables, under the supervision of Mrs. James Legge and Mrs. Trueman Miller and the bazaar and sale of plants, conducted by Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Mrs. Ellis Jones were well patronized.

Several of the ladies were in centennial costume and several pictures were taken at the close.

A Tale of Beginner's Luck

A fellow making his first visit to Senior Citizens, was welcomed by Buttimer Delshaw, who is always on the job. The visitor noticed that about thirty-five people were seated around tables, tooling with cards for playing euchre. Three ladies invited him to sit in for a game. He informed them that he didn't know any more about euchre than a last year's potato bug knew about woman suffrage. They said, "Sit down — you won't be the first man we've shown a few tricks." So he sat. They gave him five cards and told him it was his turn to lead. Well, he got up and started to lead them, but no one was following, so he sat down again. He was just seated when someone said: "I order you up." So he got up just in time to hear her say, "I want to play it alone." This made him mad, and he replied, "Well, why did you ask me to play if you want to play alone?" Everyone laughed and although he didn't see the joke, he sat down again. Then he gave out the cards and they told him to turn over the top one. He said, "She's pretty big, but I'll try." He lugged and tugged at the lady sitting next to him, but gave up, saying: "I can't turn her over. I can't even budge her."

The crowd laughed and laughed and said they had not had so much fun playing euchre in a long time.

To the visitor's embarrassment, they explained it was the card and not the woman he was to turn. Then the big lady said, "I can't make it and I want to pass." "Well," he said, "there's plenty of room for two to pass here, but maybe you know best." She had that worried look and gazing at her cards remarked, "Oh, dear! My hands have been spots all afternoon." At this information, the gentleman, never having had measles and not wishing to be exposed to them, got up and excusing himself, left for home.

He was heard to remark when he left: "Well, I'd like to come back again next week for they say it will perhaps be the last meeting until Fall. But if I do, I hope they play dominoes."

Sh! Don't tell anyone!

W.I. Curators Met At O'Hara's Mill

O'Hara's Mill Conservation Park proved an ideal spot for the Women's Institute Curators of Trent Valley Area to meet for their Centennial picnic, under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Sills, Area Curator. The perfect weather, bright centennial costumes and the most generous and tasty food and fellowship, all added up to make the day a success.

After dinner Mrs. Sills led in arranging some entertainment and fun in which all took part and for which she brought some homemade prizes.

Mrs. Christie, of Nepton, won the centennial bonnet for having come the farthest.

Mrs. Nobes (Sidney South) for the most old fashioned dish of food — a loaf of homemade bread.

Mrs. Roy Bush (River Valley) — a centennial apron for the best entertainment.

The remainder of the day was spent in reminiscing and seeing pictures of local centennial projects, viewing Tweedsmuir Histories and touring the main projects on the grounds — the mill, the old log school house and the old house and furnishings which are all being restored. One lady proved the fishing was good, having brought her pole, caught a trout.

Everyone was delighted with the day and before parting sang their thanks to Mrs. Sills for having made the day possible.

80th Birthday Party

The family of Mr. Karl Sine, Belleville, entertained their father on his 80th birthday, on June 18th, at Menie Institute Hall, Seymour East. Most of the family attended.

During the evening, Bob Sine called all to order and Mrs. Douglas Hagerman, by request, sang a solo, "Bless This House". Bob then presented "Dad" with gifts and a birthday cake. Some pictures were taken after which everyone enjoyed a bountiful salad plate supper, buffet style.

Those attending were: Mr. and

Bethel United Church Hold All-Day Centennial Events

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

Sunday, June 18th was a gala occasion at Bethel United Church on the Rawdon Charge as former members from near and far came home to meet with old friends and neighbours and to enjoy a day of fellowship.

Mrs. Donald Heath and her Centennial Committee, Mrs. Harold Elliott, Mrs. Stewart Hoover and Mrs. Will Heath spent many hours in planning and arranging the affair and they were rewarded for their efforts when the day was such a wonderful success.

Morning Service

The guests were welcomed at the front door of the church by Mrs. Will Heath and Mrs. Stewart Hoover, wearing their centennial dresses. Inside the church Mrs. Francis Reid and Mrs. Oscar Lightle gave out the order of service and Mrs. Wayne Whiteman (the former Judy Reid) was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Harold Elliott provided the music for the services. A choir, in centennial dress, was composed of seventeen voices, and ten of these were former members who returned to their home church on this auspicious occasion. During the service they rendered the centennial hymn written by Mrs. Roy Bush, of River Valley.

The pastor Rev. W. C. Cox, was in charge and gave a special message. He also read greetings from three former pastors, Rev. F. G. Joblin, Port Perry; Rev. R. R. Bonsteel, of Oakville; Rev. W. G. Fletcher, Lansdowne; also Mrs. F. F. Townsend and Elmer Sandercock, MPP, both of Belleville.

Mrs. Jim Heath, Lindsay, the former Peggy Rodgers, who was once a school teacher at the Sine School, was guest soloist.

Presentation
Bethel Sunday School presented the church officials with two flags and these were dedicated. The presentation was made by Gayle Hoover and Clinton Ketchen.

Reeve Fred Beckett, of Rawdon Township, brought greetings.

History of Church

Mrs. Carleton Potts, Mount Pleasant, the former Irene Tucker, gave the "Historic Review." She said in part that the Bethel Methodist Church was built in 1874. There were eight members on the Official Board, namely John Green, Luther Tucker, S. D. Sills, Charles Sine, Sanford Cayley, David Tucker, Alexander Sills and Isaac Denike. At this time there were fourteen Methodist classes in the Stirling Circuit supervised by two ministers and several lay readers. The old historic records state that Methodism began in 1700.

The organist of 1899 is still alive. The first wedding in the church was in 1895 and forty years later in 1935 the second wedding was solemnized.

The old records state that three hundred pounds of nails cost three dollars and six cord of wood was purchased for twelve dollars.

The Bethel congregation has been much smaller during the past twenty years due to many changes in the community. Those still left have carried on the work and tried to pay their share of the expenses.

In closing Mrs. Potts paid tribute to the pioneers and also to all who have carried on the torch through the 93 years since the church was erected.

Memorial flowers were placed in the church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sine and son Reginald; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Denike and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Denike; Walter Warren; S. J. Elliott; Roy Wellman; the Green and Tucker families; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Thompson.

Several of the guests wore centennial clothes and among them was Everett Sine, of Salem, wearing a suit of clothes over one hundred years old.

A large dinner bell from the Heath home was set up in the church lawn and David McLaren, Oshawa, a great grandson of the late C. U. Heath, rang the bell to usher the guests to the church hall where the members of the UCW served a luncheon and nearly everyone in attendance at the morning service remained to enjoy the fellowship.

Antique Articles

A large display of antique farm tools had been placed on the church lawn while display tables in the church held numerous old photo albums. A black silk fringed cape, worn by the late Mrs. C. U. Heath; a collection of wedding clothes, worn by the late Mrs. James Barron; several articles owned by the late Mrs. Neil Sine; baby clothes worn almost 80 years ago by a member of the community; the original pulpit lamp used in the church in 1874; and many items of special interest to those in attendance.

AFTERNOON TEA

CENTENNIAL TEA

At the Centennial Tea in the afternoon the guests were received and served by Mrs. Stewart Hoover, Mrs. Oscar Lightle, Mrs. Donald Heath, Mrs. Harold Elliott, Mrs. W. F. Keller, Mrs. Will Heath and Mrs. Francis Reid.

The tea table was decorated with miniature centennial flags. Mrs. Edgar McKeown and Mrs. Harry Heath presided at the silver services and Mrs. Marvin Cooney convened the tea room. The plates were replenished by Mrs. Alton Hadley and Mrs. Earl Ketchen.

During the afternoon Miss Cathy Ketchen provided numerous musical selections on her electric organ.

EVENING SERVICE

The evening service opened with a session of hymn singing led by Rev. Bruce Small, of St. Paul's United Church, Stirling. He gave a resume of the various hymn writers which provided added interest.

Rev. W. C. Cox was in charge of the devotional and also gave a centennial message.

Mrs. Barry Crawford, of Peterboro, the former Donalda Heath, contributed a vocal solo.

Mrs. Kenneth Weaver, of Mount Pleasant, President of Belleville Presbyterian UCW, brought greetings.

Mrs. Harry Morrow, River Valley, the former Mildred Elliott, and her sister, Mrs. Goldie McInroy, of West Huntingdon, the former Annie Elliott, rendered a vocal duet.

The service closed with another sing song of old favourite hymns. Those in attendance were then entertained in the church hall to a social hour.

The Bethel Appointment have 27 families and 40 members and their Centennial Day on Sunday, June 18th was an outstanding event in the life of this very small group of church workers.

Canada

(By Myrtle Broadworth)

O CANADA! O Homeland dear,
We hail thy glad Centennial Year!

When God created Heaven and Earth
Long years before our Nation's birth,
His mighty hand with power divine,
In union with His master mind,
Was pleased to spread from sea to sea

This lovely Land for you and me.
He fashioned mountains, waters,
plains,
And formed our Country's vast domains.

He created boulders, lofty, wide, —
Now British Columbia's majestic pride;
With fertile valleys below, between,
(His handiwork by man is seen!)
Whence from those rocky beds, the snow

Now melting causes streams to grow
To rivers. Then running fast on down below
(Where spawn the mighty red Cohoe)
They rush with springtime laughter gay

To join Pacific Ocean's spray;
Where ships of men now oft manoeuvre
'Round lovely Island of Vancouver.

Some rocks He seemed intent to hide,
And formed with care the Great Divide;
While some obedient to His call
Were pleased to form a waterfall.

Some rocks He placed in Eastern climes,
Brave sentinels of the Maritimes, —
Where Fathers of Confederation
Were destined to plan our beloved Nation.

Then o'er these provinces, all three,
He spread His beauty lavishly;
Where rolling hills and fertile fields
Now agricultural products yield;
And lumberjacks make forests ring,
And birds in apple orchards sing.

Then hid some treasures 'neath the sod
That men exclaim, "How great is God!"

And then His hand smoothed out a plain
Where grows the wealth of Prairie grain;
While here and there some derricks high,
Now raise their heads against the sky,

While from beneath man taps their wealth
For industry and home and health.

He breathed to bless midst winter snow —
And caused the warm Chinooks to blow!

He fashioned fertile hills and dales,
And formed Ontario's verdant vales;
Where lazy cattle love to roam,
And Federal Government built a home.

He tumbled stones and earth at will,
And forth there came our scenic hills.
Then 'mong her rugged northlands, cold,
He sprinkled richly wealth untold.

He formed Quebec, 'neath sunny skies,
Where Habitant his skill applies;
Then hid some treasures as of old,
And planted trees worth more than gold.

'Tis here that Expo Sixty-seven
Will spread her wonders beneath the heavens,
And folk will meet from 'round the world
Beneath the "Maple Leaf" unfurled, —

Now waving proud from sea to sea,
The emblem of our fair Country!

And in the Northwest's rough terrain,
Where Royal Mounties proudly reign,
He gave to Indian and Eskimo
The skill to battle ice and snow.

He formed the Yukon, starry cold,
Where serve our Sons in honour bold;
With mighty guardians of the sky
They watch, content to live or die,

And join our men of Land and Sea
To keep our people ever free.

Then gathering bits of rocks and things,
Some grasses green, some silvery springs,
He placed them at Atlantic's gate,
And lo, Newfoundland and Belle Isle Strait!

Here, stalwart men go out to sea
To claim her water's delicacies.

Now, from the Great Lakes, He made like seas,
Man formed a Waterway of these
With River St. Lawrence — all fresh, flowing free,

Where ship navigate from and to the Sea.

Then here and there He hid a pond
Where cunning fish are often spawned,
With little clumps of land and trees,
How Nature strives our hearts to please!

Then tuned the song of babbling brook,
Where bird and beast find shady nook,
And weary men in solitude
Find rest and peace and fortitude.

Now over all this Land of ours
(His beauty graced with trees and flowers),
Man builds a House on native sod,
Where humble folk still worship God.

And give to Him the honour due,
For all His love and kindness, true,
And pray, "Oh, bless us, Lord, for good,
And join our hearts in Brotherhood."

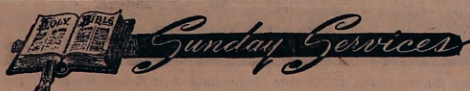

Then joyfully we'll shout and sing,
While bells o'er all our Nation ring,
"O CANADA, our Homeland dear,
We hail thy glad Centennial Year!"

Ont. Horticultural Convention Held At Guelph

The 61st Ontario Horticultural Convention was held at The University of Guelph (formerly O.A.C.) from June 21st to June 23rd. Approximately seven hundred delegates and members registered. North Bay, Pembroke, Sarnia, Ottawa, Picton and Stirling were some distant Societies represented.

Speakers during the convention were Hon. George Drew, Chancellor of the University of Guelph, speaking on "The Challenge of the Second Century"; Dr. Grant Carman, Ottawa, "Man and His World"; Atam, Jit-Singh Ball, of Kashmir, who spoke on his homeland and showed a film of the beautiful country, crops and fruits, which included cherries, strawberries and apricots, which are exported all over the world. Mr. Ball is to graduate this year from the University of Guelph.

At the banquet on Thursday night, Rev. Dr. Findlay Stewart, of Kitchener, was a very jolly and humorous speaker. Other highlights were films shown during sessions and prize winning slides from a contest conducted by the Society. More entries are needed in this venture.

The social side of the Convention included a bus tour of Kitchener, Waterloo and Guelph in pouring rain. Parks and shopping malls were admired by all. After the tour all went to the Physical Education Building.

Centennial dresses were to be worn during the Convention as much as possible and during the evening prizes were awarded for best authentic and modern made costumes. Square Dance Clubs from Guelph entertained with modern square dancing. Coffee and cookies were served courtesy of the Guelph Horticultural Society.

On Friday, at 1 o'clock, a chicken barbecue was enjoyed by all on the lawn of Creelman Hall. Then delegates were free to return home from a very interesting convention.

A quote from one of the many speakers was "To add years to your life and life to your years, be a gardener".

Attending from Stirling were Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, Mrs. Raymond McConnell, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Grant Hubble and Mrs. Harold West.

Centennial Service St. Andrew's Church West Huntingdon

Centennial Sunday was fittingly observed at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon, on the Sunday previous to Canada's one hundredth birthday, when former members and members of neighbouring churches were invited to worship in a special service at eleven o'clock.

The church was filled to capacity and Rev. D. C. MacPherson chose the text from Exodus 3:5 and Acts 7:33.

STIRLING HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Find planting of Gladioli, Tuberoses and Dahlias should be made before the end of the month.

"Put off thy shoes from thy feet for the place where thou standest is holy ground", and preached on the theme "Holy Ground". He spoke of the significance of the burning bush on holy ground and reminded his listeners to look to the future.

Beautiful summer flowers enhanced the Church in wicker stands and on the Communion table and were given by the Haggerty family in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty, Warren and Donald, and Mrs. Marguerite Clancy; by the McInroy family in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McInroy, Mr. Andrew McInroy and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGee, and by the Thompson family in memory of Mr. Harry Thompson.

Special music was rendered by the Explorers singing the hymn "Come, Children, Join To Sing", accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hassall. Fourteen young people sang, "How Long Has It Been", accompanied by Mrs. Lindsay Sills, who also accompanied the hymns, "O God, Our Help In Ages Past", "Onward, Christian Soldiers", and "Lord of the Lands", which were all very fitting for such a service.

Following the sermon, Rev. MacPherson, assisted by the elders, Messrs. Morley Haggerty, John Wallace, Harold Thompson and Milton Shaw, dedicated two new flags, the Centennial and the Maple Leaf, which had been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper; and two wicker flower stands and a rug for the choir loft, which were gifts from West Huntingdon United Church. All these gifts were greatly appreciated by the congregation of St. Andrew's.

Following the singing of the National Anthem, the guests, numbering approximately 150, were invited to the Sunday School rooms for a luncheon. They were welcomed there by Mrs. D. C. MacPherson, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mrs. John Wallace. The tables were attractive with linen cloths, summer flowers and a variety of salads, cold meat, coffee, relishes and pie. Mrs. John McInroy, President of the Ladies' Aid and Mrs. William Donnan very capably planned the menu. Several members were in Centennial costume, which added to the occasion.

Greetings were expressed by Rev. D. C. MacPherson from Rev. and Mrs. W. H. V. Walker and Mr. Harper Rollins, who were unable to attend. Flowers were sent to Mr. Sam Donnan, an elder, who is ill in Belleville. The offering was very generous and goes to the Women's Missionary of the Church.

Guests were in attendance from Kingston, Ottawa, Toronto, Belleville, Campbellford and from the neighbouring churches.

In the evening about thirty-five members enjoyed their evening meal at the Church as a fitting climax to Centennial Sunday.
